Because you are a newly created organization we are not now making a final determination of your foundation status under section 509(a) of the Code However, we have determined that you can reasonably be expected to be a public ly supported organization described in sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)

Accordingly, you will be treated as a publicly supported organization and not as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period advance ruling period begins and ends on the dates shown above.

Within 90 days after the end of your advance ruling period, you must submit to us information needed to determine whether you have met the requirements of the applicable support test during the advance ruling period. If you establish that you have been a publicly supported organization, you will be classified as a section 509(a)(1) or 509(a)(2) organization as long as you continue to meet the requirements of the applicable support test If you do not meet the public support requirements during the advance ruling period, you will be classified as a private foundation for future periods Also if you are classified as a private foundation, you will be treated as a private foundation from the date of your inception for purposes of sections 507(d) and 4940
